Framework (Head, Heart and Hands):

Our task can be seen within the framework of:

- Head (the ruling side of things – biblical rule of faith and practice, NESA requirements, evidence based research, professional development),
- Heart (your passion for the gospel, for your subject, for shepherding your faculty members and your students) and
- Hands (the practical component of what you do: administration, stewardship, implementation in our situation).

Essential Criteria:

- Be able to fully subscribe to the School's Statement of Faith

- The ability to work effectively among a team
- Well-developed communication skills
- The ability to meet the physical demands involved in this position - experience in a similar role will be looked upon favourably

Working at William Carey gives the opportunity and responsibility for staff:

- To develop their biblical worldview and to disseminate it
- To share the gospel with students and parents, pointing them to Christ
- To develop relationships with colleagues and others that show the fruit of the Spirit, modelling Christ in their interactions and being sensitive to interpreting responses from students and parents who come from diverse cultural and religious backgrounds

- To develop their professional skills, carrying out their duties in a competent and conscientious manner, while seeking opportunities to improve their knowledge and skills, including through participation in professional development
- To work cooperatively to maintain a consultative and collaborative workplace
- To work humbly, following reasonable instructions given by their supervisor, complying with school policies and procedures, and being accountable for their own actions and decisions.
